PASTORS CORNER at New Vision

Greetings New Vision Family & Friends:

I hope and pray this newsletter finds you all doing well. October is a month full of many great events; the first being this Sunday October the 11th when the Pumpkins arrive, the second being the Fall Festival and Yard Sale on October the 24th. These events are a tremendous opportunity to have new people visit our church grounds and invite them to join us for worship service. The hardest and the easiest part of Evangelism is in the asking. Pray that God will provide you with a chance to share the gospel and then let God by the Spirit do the drawing in.

There is no time like the present to get involved in the varied ministry work we do here at New Vision. If you are unsure where your personal gifts and talents fit in or what ministries are available just ask your deacon or one of the Elders or myself and we will help you identify the areas you are called to participate in.
